Ministries Magazine LLC is a faith based publication, focusing on sharing valuable resources for any in need, bringing unity among the body of Christ and knowledge for equipping and helping each other to grow in our faith. We do this through sharing ministries, stories, articles, valuable resources, and bridging the gap between secular community and faith based resources to any who may be in need.

Each issue contains a variety of interactive resources, stories of hope and encouragement, study tips, encouragement of love and unity, ministries, testimonies and more.

Ministries Magazine is released bi-monthly, January/February, March/April, May/June, July/August, September/October, and November/December.

Each release is sent out via email submissions, social media and our website.

Advertising for Ministries Magazine is sent out through social media, our website and EDDM postcard throughout different communities.

Your ad will not only be in the magazine, but will also be on our website.. You can also advertise on the EDDM postcard that is sent out to a variety of communities.

Please consider helping us to help others.

DISCLAIMER: Submissions are always welcome and are subject to approval. We are a Christian Magazine and do not tolerate disrespect in any way. Advertisers and or submissions do not necessarily reflect the views of this magazine. Ministries Magazine is not responsible for the business of any advertisers, and reserve the right to refuse advertising for any reason. If there is any content you do not agree with, please seek the Lord's council first, then please email us. Together we can come to a solution. There are still denominations in the body, so there will still be disagreements. We believe the entire Bible as the living breathing Word of God, not in part. Sometimes we need to agree to disagree and pray the Holy Spirit will guide and teach each other His truths.
